FEBRUARY 2022

CAREER ARTICLES

Ace Your Virtual Interview: Tips and Tricks for Pharmacy Students and Professionals

While this article was written at the start of the pandemic, Kristine Pisikian's advice is still relevant as you interview for technician, internship, and pharmacist positions.

Setting Career Priorities When Everything Is Uncertain

In this Harvard Business Review article, Nihar Chhaya reflects on ways to manage uncertainty now and "leverage it for your future benefit."

Providing Patient Care in a Community Pharmacy Career

In this article, Sophia Herbert, PharmD discusses the "critical transformation" of community pharmacy practice.

Pharmacy Demand Report (PDR)

The PDR was developed to provide an enhanced measurement of pharmacist demand in the United States. This information is intended to be utilized to follow the trends for various career opportunities for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians on an individual state, region, and metropolitan area level. Read more about the PDR here and access the 2021 full report here.

CAREER RESOURCES

Employer Letter

We have created the attached letter to be shared with your employer, as needed, to highlight the demands of our PharmD program and encourage employers to engage in an open dialogue with employees about balancing their employment and school needs to ensure success in both areas.

Internship and Job Database

As you search for an internship or job, refer to the Internship and Job Database. If you have a position to post, email the details to Chelsea Wimmer (chelsea.wimmer@wisc.edu).

Career Website and Canvas Module

Be sure to reference the SOP's career resources webpage for resources related to career exploration, job search preparation, professional organizations, and licensure and boards. Don't forget to reference your 2021 Virtual Career Days module in Canvas to review resources and recordings from last fall's Career Development Day.

UPCOMING EVENTS

How to Align Your Time with Your Priorities

Register for the virtual webinar on Thursday, February 10 from 1:00-2:30pm to learn more about a hands-on, step-by-step guide to the 30-minute weekly planning technique that helps you get control of your workdays. Activate your free (UW-Madison) NCFDD membership or sign in to watch the webinar.

Developing and Delivering Conference Presentations

Register for the virtual Writing Center Workshop on Wednesday, February 23 from 3:30-5:00pm. This workshop will hone your skills for planning, organizing, and delivering presentations for scholarly audiences, including incorporating visual aids and preparing for the Q&A.

Spring Interview Day

SAVE THE DATE for Friday, April 1. Virtual and in-person interviews will be offered for pharmacy intern, pharmacy technician, and/or pharmacist positions. More information to come from Lindsey Weigel.

Professional Photos

The School of Pharmacy will offer professional photos for current DPH-1 and DPH-2 students in the fall. More information will be shared in future Career Newsletters.
